Kenſington, October 8.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Briſtol, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Briſtol, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Briſtol.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Briſtol, beg Leave, with all Humility, to addreſs your Majeſty upon the preſent Occaſion of an Inſurrection in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown.

This Attempt upon our whole Conſtitution, both in Church and State, which we have ſo long ſecurely enjoyed under your Majeſty's gracious Government, cannot but raiſe the utmoſt Deteſtation in the Breaſt of every one, who has any juſt Value for either of them.

And as we are under all the Obligations of Intereſt, Gratitude, and Chriſtian Loyalty, together with the moſt ſacred voluntary Engagements, to an inviolable Fidelity to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; ſo we think it incumbent upon us, at this Time eſpecially, to declare, with all Simplicity, that we bear in our Hearts the deepeſt Senſe of theſe accumulated Obligations of Allegiance to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and will faithfully adhere to them in our whole Conduct; and particularly that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to beget a like zealous Senſe of this their Duty in the People under our Charge; as well as to oppoſe that avowed Irreligion and Vice, which, to the Diſhonour of Almighty God, ſo much abound, and not only vilify, but have a Tendency even to ſubvert all Civil Authority.

May the Divine Providence guard your ſacred Perſon, give Succeſs to your Counſels and Arms, and defeat thoſe of your Enemies: And, ſurrounded with every Bleſſing, may your Majeſty long reign over theſe Nations, and be ſucceeded by Deſcendants of your illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter.

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter, after expreſſing our Joy for your ſafe and welcome Return to your Britiſh Dominions, beg Leave to tender our ſincere and ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of doing every Thing in our Power to ſupport your Right and Title to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and to make your Poſſeſſion thereof eaſy and ſecure againſt all Oppoſers.

While we are thus employ'd, we are ſenſible how much we are doing our own Buſineſs, and taking taking Care of ourſelves; are conſulting the Safety of what we prize higheſt, and value moſt; are labouring and contending in Defence of our Rights and Liberties as Free Britons, and of our Holy Religion as Proteſtant Divines; are guarding againſt that Subverter of our Laws, and Corrupter of our Faith, and Enſlaver of our Minds as well as Bodies, a Popiſh Government.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to declare to you and all the World, our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the preſent unnatural Inſurrection of your own Rebellious Subjects, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Throne, and that we will not ceaſe our earneſt Prayers to God, our Labours, and all our Intereſt, to avert the great Calamity we are threaten'd with; and that this audacious Attempt may ſoon be quaſhed, and we and all your faithful Subjects be reſtored to the quiet Enjoyment of our Laws, our Liberties, and our Religion, and to a ſure and reaſonable Hope of tranſmitting them ſafe under your Majeſty and your Royal Deſcendants, to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants and Juſtices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Cheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Cholmondeley, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants and Juſtices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Cheſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Lieutenants and Juſtices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Cheſter, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions; and to take this Opportunity of expreſſing, with the warmeſt Zeal, our unſhaken Loyalty and Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

With the utmoſt Abhorrence we view the bold and deſperate Attempts of ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects, (deceived and led by the Encouragement of foreign Enemies) to raiſe an unnatural Rebellion in theſe Kingdoms, thereby expoſing the Nation to the Miſchief and Deſolation of a civil War. And our Deteſtation of them is heightned by the Reflection, that theſe pernicious Schemes can only enter into the Hearts of Men entirely loſt to all Senſe of Loyalty and Duty to your Majeſty, and to all Regard for the Laws, Liberties, and Religion of their Country; which, ſhould this Rebellion ſucceed, muſt inevitably become a Prey to the Ambition of its moſt inveterate Enemies, and fall a Sacrifice to the Revenge and Cruelties of popiſh Tyranny and arbitrary Power.

On our Parts, your Majeſty may reſt aſſured, that as we are highly ſenſible how eſſentially the Intereſt, Liberty and Happineſs of your People, are connected with the Support and Continuance of the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms on your ſacred Head; ſo we ſhall on this, and all other Occaſions, exert our utmoſt Endeavours to maintain your Royal Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Royal Family; and to tranſmit the Bleſſings we enjoy under the Protection of your auguſt Houſe to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, and the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Monmouth, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, and the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Monmouth, at a Meeting held at Usk in the ſaid County, the 25th Day of September 1745.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Monmouth, take the Liberty to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival in Great Britain, and upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, which have added the important Place of Cape Breton to your Majeſty's Dominions.

Upon receiving Information that a popiſh Pretender has dared to invade your Majeſty's Kingdoms, we take this early Opportunity of expreſſing our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch a raſh and inſolent Attempt; and at the ſame Time of offering our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Proteſtant Hanover Succeſſion.

We are ready, Sir, to venture our Lives and Liberties in your juſt and glorious Cauſe. Our Rebel Antagoniſts venture their Lives only, for

by

by the Cauſe they maintain, they diſclaim the Name of Liberty.

All that is dear to us is attack'd, and we will hazard all that is dear to us to defend the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign.

We have grateful Hearts. We are ſenſible and thankful that the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, is duely maintain'd; that the Laws of this Kingdom have their full Force; and that no Man has real Cauſe to complain under your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Reign.

Your Majeſty may therefore reſt aſſured, that whatever the beſt Prince can expect from the Hands and Hearts of the moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, we ſhall be ready and willing to make good, acknowledging to all the World, that we look upon the Proteſtant Hanover Succeſſion, and the Religion and Liberty of our Country, to be inſeparable.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable Thomas Winnington, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid City, and one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worceſter, having long experienced your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, and being truly ſenſible of the many great and invaluable Bleſſings accruing to this Nation from your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, cannot but expreſs our utter Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion now carrying on in Favour of the Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, and conſequently in Subverſion of our happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State.

As the Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties (under the Divine Providence) intirely depends upon the Preſervation and Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in your moſt illuſtrious Houſe; we think ourſelves bound in Point of Intereſt, as well as Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty for Benefits already receiv'd, to renew the Aſſurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty, and to declare, that Nothing in our Power ſhall be wanting to defend and ſupport your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies whatſoever.

We beg Leave to add our hearty Prayers and Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Arms may be bleſſed with Succeſs; and that after your Majeſty has enjoyed a long and happy Reign over us, the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms may be continued in your Majeſty's Royal Family. Given under our common Seal the 26th Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Doctor George Lee, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of this your ancient and loyal Borough, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return to this Kingdom, and the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of Cape Breton.

And at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty that we have the utmoſt Abhorrence of the Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions by a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms.

Were it poſſible for us to be unmindful of the long and uninterrupted Felicity we have enjoy'd under your Majeſty's mild and gentle Government; or to be inſenſible that this Invaſion is the natural and undoubted Conſequence of that Reſentment which has been raiſed by the glorious Part your Majeſty has taken in the Defence of the Liberties of Europe, and the Protection of the Trade and moſt important Intereſts of your Majeſty's Subjects; yet the juſt Senſe of the Danger our Religion and Liberties muſt inevitably be expos'd to from an Attempt to eſtabliſh a popiſh and arbitrary Government in this Realm, by the Strength and Power of France, and conſequently to render it for ever hereafter hereafter a miſerable Dependant upon the ſame, could not fail to excite in us the warmeſt and ſtrongeſt Reſolutions to ſupport your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes, which we ſhall never think worth preſerving longer than we can enjoy them with Liberty and Freedom.

And although ſome few Perſons may have unhappily been ſeduc'd and impos'd upon by the Artifices and falſe Pretences made Uſe of to deceive them; yet we flatter ourſelves, that the ſame Britiſh Ardour, the ſame Love of Liberty, and Deteſtation of the boundleſs Ambition and unwearied Endeavours of France to bring us to Deſtruction, which have ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed our Anceſtors, will animate the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects upon this Occaſion, in ſuch a Manner, that theſe Diſturbers of our Peace will ſoon meet with the Fate they juſtly deſerve.

That your Majeſty's Arms may ever be attended with Succeſs, and the Crown of theſe Realms continued to lateſt Poſterity in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, as the greateſt Security we can poſſibly have for our Religion, Liberties, and all that is dear and valuable to us, are the moſt ardent Wiſhes of

moſt faithful and obedient Subjects and Servants.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the ſaid Borough, the 27th Day of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Stair, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, met at the Head Burgh of the Stewartry, take the Liberty humbly to approach your ſacred Perſon, and with Joy to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe, and happy and ſeaſonable Return to theſe your Dominions; and with Hearts fill'd with Loyalty and Affection to your Perſon and Government, and with the greateſt Zeal for the Defence of our Holy Religion, the Rights and Liberties of our native Country, beg Leave, in this critical Conjuncture, to offer renewed Aſſurances of our ſtedfaſt Adherence in our Loyalty to you Majeſty, and to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, which we look upon, under God, as the only Security of all that is dear, and moſt nearly concerns us, and the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms: And at the ſame Time to expreſs our Abhorrence of the wicked and pernicious Practices that have been ſet on Foot, and carried on to an open Inſurrection and Rebellion, in order to diſturb the Peace and Quiet of your Realm, and expoſe it to the devouring Sword, both of profligate and unnatural Subjects at Home, and inveterate Enemies Abroad, who cannot fail to be encouraged by ſuch Inſurrection to invade us, as becoming an eaſy Prey.

If your Majeſty will be pleaſed to indulge us Arms and proper Authority, to aſſemble ourſelves, with others your Majeſty's good Subjects in the County, in a Military Way, and proper Officers to inſtruct us in Diſcipline, we ſhall exert ourſelves to our utmoſt, not only to maintain the Peace among ourſelves, but alſo in obeying and executing all your Majeſty's Commands.

We cannot help declaring our Amazement, that any Briton ſhould be found, when we live quiet and happy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and under a well-poiſed Government, who could wiſh to exchange it for Slavery and arbitrary Power, to be exerciſed by a Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, of a Religion, in which human Kind ſuffer Indignities and Cruelties, under the Notion of Religion and Government. We, for our Parts, declare to your Majeſty, that upon this Occaſion, and at all Times, we ſhall be ready, with becoming Warmth and Reſolution, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and of any Danger that ſhall enſue, to defend and ſupport your ſacred Perſon and Government, and your undoubted Right to the Crown, againſt all who ſhall dare to make any traiterous Attempts upon it. And our ardent Prayers ſhall always accompany our Endeavours, that the Bleſſings we enjoy may deſcend to Poſterity, under the Protection of your Royal Family. We are,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, loyal,
and dutiful Subjects,
and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Albert Nesbitt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Zeal and Fidelity to your Royal Perſon and Family.

We are ſenſible, that the Services we may be able to perform, at a Time when your Majeſty will be in need of the Support of your whole People, will be of very little Moment towards the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and we wiſh our Abilities were equal to our Zeal for your Majeſty's Welfare, and the Peace and Quiet of theſe Realms.

All we can do is to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert ourſelves to the utmoſt in our ſeveral Capacities, to prevent and diſcourage Diſaffection, and to promote Unanimity in our Country in your Majeſty's Defence, as we are convinced, that in defending your Majeſty, we are acting in Support of every Benefit and Privilege belonging to a free People.

Given under our Hands, and the common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, the 26th Day of September, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiff, Aldermen, Freemen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Sundon, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiff, Aldermen Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Burough of Plympton in Devon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, moſt humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton.

It is with the higheſt Indignation that we hear of an unnatural Rebellion fomented at this time in your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, and we moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs the Abhorrence of the Conduct of all thoſe who, inſenſible of their Happineſs under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Reign, are wicked enough to endeavour to involve their Country in all the Calamity and Miſery of a Civil War.

We beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Fidelity and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty, upon this, and every other Occaſion, and we are ready chearfully to lay down our Lives, and devote our Fortunes to the effectual Support of your Majeſty and your Poſterity.

May the Almighty proſper all your Majeſty's Undertakings for the Happineſs of your People, and ſtill continue to guard and defend your Majeſty and your Royal Poſterity againſt all diſloyal and traiterous Attempts of your's and the Nation's Enemies.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on your happy and ſafe Arrival in theſe your Kingdoms; and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of the Iſlands and Forts of Cape Breton, a Place of the greateſt Importance to the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain.

It affects us with the utmoſt Abhorrence, to hear of the raſh and impious Attempts of your rebellious Subjects in Scotland, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender; but we hope, through the unanimous Zeal of your loyal People, their deteſted Deſigns will be fruſtrated; and your Majeſty may depend on our united Endeavours to ſupport and defend your Majeſty and your Royal Family on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms with our Lives and Fortunes, for on you, Sir, we are firmly perſuaded, our Religion and Civil Rights depend.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dovor, was preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord George Sackville, and Thomas Revel, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dovor, in the County of Kent.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of your Town and Port of Dovor, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and happy Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions, after your unwearied Labours and Care for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe.

And permit us, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring Attempts of the profeſſed Enemies of your Majeſty and this Nation, in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender.

We beg Leave alſo to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Fidelity to your Royal Perſon, and unalterable Steadineſs and Zeal for the Support of the Proteſtant Religion; (which cannot be upheld but under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government) for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Houſe, and of the Laws and Liberties of our Country.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe, in the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tankerville: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe, in the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions; and alſo to expreſs our Joy on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms on Cape Breton.

And as we cannot, without the utmoſt Deteſtation, look upon the Deſigns of a popiſh Pretender (abetted and ſupported by the Power of France, our moſt inveterate Enemy) againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, we therefore beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport and defend your Majeſty againſt all your Enemies.

And that our moſt hearty and ſincere Wiſhes and Prayers are, that your Majeſty may long and happily Reign over us; and that theſe Kingdoms may always flouriſh, and enjoy their preſent happy Conſtitutions both in Church and State, under the Government of your Majeſty and your Poſterity.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed, this 18th Day of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter in the County of Leiceſter, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, in the County of Leiceſter, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, with Hearts full of Joy, for your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in Great Britain, at a Time when your Preſence was immediately neceſſary, to ſecure to us our Lives, Liberties, and Religion.

The free Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings in every Part of your Majeſty's Reign over us, has inſpired us with a Loyalty founded upon Reaſon, as well as Duty; and therefore 'tis no Wonder that, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Surprize, we heard that any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould, contrary both to their real Intereſt and Duty, make any Attempts to ſet an abjur'd Pretender upon your Throne, or endeavour to exchange Liberty for Slavery, Religion for Superſtition.

We beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Perſon and Family, and that our Lives and Fortunes ſhall be ſpent in their Support, being reſolved to endeavour to the utmoſt, to tranſmit to our Succeſſors and Poſterity, that Religion and Liberty which we have received from our Anceſtors, and which we cannot hope to be continu'd, but in your Royal Perſon and Family: Wherefore we ſincerely pray, that your Majeſty, or ſome Deſcendants from your Royal Perſon, may ſit on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to the lateſt Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 2d Day of October 1745.

The following Aſſociation of the Manufacturers and others inhabiting in or near Spital Fields, (who to their ſeveral ſubſcribed Names have added the Numbers of Men each Manufacturer propoſes to raiſe for his Majeſty's Service,) has been preſented to his Majeſty by Mr. Alderman Baker, accompanied by a numerous Body of Gentlemen, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Chriſt Church, Middleſex, Sept. 26, 1745.

WE whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, Manufacturers and others inhabiting in or near Spital Fields, in the County of Middleſex, duly conſidering the great and many Bleſſings we enjoy under his moſt ſacred and illuſtrious Majeſty King George, think it our Duty, (at this Time more eſpecially) to manifeſt our inviolable Attachment to his Perſon and Government. We do therefore declare our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion now carried on in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, or ſome of his Family: And we do, as much as in us lies, ſolemnly promiſe and engage ourſelves to ſtand by each other to the utmoſt of our Power and Ability, to defend his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by inducing our ſeveral Workmen, Servants and Dependants, to take up Arms with us whenever called thereto by his Majeſty, againſt all his Enemies, both Foreign and Domeſtick.

A LIST of ſuch Manufacturers and others inhabiting in or near Spital Fields, together with the Number of their Workmen, Servants and Dependants, who have been engaged by their Maſters to take up Arms when called thereto by his Majeſty, in Defence of his Perſon and Government.

Laſcelles, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty George the Second, over Great Britain, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Coroners, Recorder, Chamberlains, Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, Gentlemen, and others Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough of Scarbrough in the North Riding of the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to repeat to your Majeſty our Thanks for your early Care on all Occaſions for the Welfare of theſe Nations in Church and State, more eſpecially by your effectually oppoſing in Great Britain, at this Conjuncture, a popiſh Pretender, his Male Adherents foreign and home, by your ſupporting your Loyal Britiſh Subjects in their Properties, Laws, Liberties, and Religion, in giving your wiſe Advice, and calling upon your Allies for their reſpective Contingents from Abroad, and joining them to your own Britiſh Troops, marching them under able Generals againſt your Enemies and diſaffected Subjects, in ſeveral Parts of Great Britain, and doing every other Thing neceſſary and conducive for the obtaining and executing theſe good Ends.

Such your Advice and Conduct the laſt Year, very quickly ſtifled the like audacious and rebellious Deſigns formed againſt you, and your loyal Subjects of Great-Britain, our Properties, Laws, Liberties and Religion. And may the preſent Attempts of your Enemies be ſoon fruſtrated, is our ſincere Wiſh, and under God we doubt not our Wiſh having the deſired Effect, as your and our Cauſe is good and glorious.

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time, to declare our hearty Abhorrence to ſuch your Enemies, their Pretenſions and Undertakings.

And we do moſt ſincerely aſſure you of our bearing faithful and true Allegiance to you our lawful Sovereign, and uſing our utmoſt Efforts in Aid of your Royal Perſon and Family.

Given under the Common Seal of this Borough, this 30th Day of September, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common mon Council of your ancient Borough of King's Lynn, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to join with the reſt of your faithful Subjects, in the ſincereſt Congratulations on your happy and ſeaſonable Return to theſe your Dominions; and on the Succeſs with which it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton; a Place, which by its Situation, is of ineſtimable Benefit to the Trade of this Nation, but more eſpecially ſo, as the Advantages which will accrue to us from the Poſſeſſion of it, are taken out of the Hands of our moſt dangerous Rivals and inveterate Enemies.

Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs, your Zeal and unwearied Application have been crown'd with, in reſtoring the Imperial Dignity to that Family, from which alone we can hope to ſee the Ballance of Power and the Liberties of Europe once more ſecured, in Defiance and Diſappointment of the common Enemy, who has long aim'd at univerſal Monarchy, and who is now endeavouring, in Purſuance of that deſtructive Scheme, to wreſt the Britiſh Sceptre from your ſacred Hands, and place it with a Dependant of his own, a popiſh, abjur'd Pretender.

But as Subjects, and Engliſhmen, truly ſenſible of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, our Civil and Religious Rights, which we enjoy ſo fully under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we beg Leave to repeat the moſt faithful Aſſurances of our unfeigned and invariable Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, (under whom alone we can expect the Continuance of them to ourſelves and our Poſterity) and thus publickly to declare, that we will endeavour, by all the Means in our Power, to defeat this wicked Deſign, which aims at nothing leſs than the Deſtruction of the Honour, the Property, the Religion and Liberty of this Nation.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforeſaid, this Thirtieth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHereas an unnatural Rebellion is begun, and now carrying on, in the North Part of this our Realm, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender: And whereas, for the more effectual Suppreſſion thereof, We have Occaſion for a ſpeedy Augmentation of our Forces; we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, for the Encouragement of ſuch of our faithful Subjects, who ſhall, on this Occaſion, inliſt themſelves in our Service, to iſſue this our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby promiſe and declare, That all ſuch able-bodied Men, who ſhall inliſt themſelves, as Soldiers, in our Land Service, on or before the Twenty Fifth Day of December next, ſhall, upon their Requeſt to be diſcharged therefrom, be diſcharged accordingly, at the End of Six Months, from the reſpective Times of their Inliſting, in caſe the ſaid Rebellion ſhall be extinguiſhed within that Time; and if not, then as ſoon as the ſaid Rebellion ſhall be extinguiſhed.

Given at Our Court at Kenſington, the Fifth Day of October, 1745, in the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the King.

Vienna, October 2, N. S. Twelve Thouſand Spaniards having ſcaled the Town of Pavia, and killed or taken 1500 Sclavonians, who were juſt arrived, fatigued by a forced March, the Magiſtrates of Milan ſent their Keys on the 23d paſt to the Enemy that had paſſed the Teſſin and the Po. We have juſt received Advice, that 5000 Pruſſians have taken Poſſeſſion of Jagendorf, the Inſurgents having at the Approach of the Enemy abandoned that Place with a good Part of their Equipage, and being retired to Troppau.

Berlin, October 5, N. S. The Loſs on the Part of the Pruſſians in the late Action near Prauſnitz amounts, as is reported here, to 2000 Men. And we hear, that during the Battle, the Auſtrian Irregular Troops fell upon the King of Pruſſia's Baggage and Equipages, all which, together with thoſe of the Prince of Pruſſia, and of moſt of the Officers, they carried off. They alſo took away all his Majeſty's Domeſticks, his Plate, the Military Caſh, the Chancery and the Privy Secretary M. Eichler.

Frankfort, October 6. Monday laſt, the 4th Inſtant, being appointed for the Day of the Emperor's Coronation, his Imperial Majeſty went from his Palace at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, accompanied by the Ambaſſadors of the Secular Electors, and a numerous Retinue, to the Cathedral. The Emperor rode under a rich Canopy, ſupported by twelve Perſons of Diſtinction, dreſſed in his Robes as King of the Romans. At the Entry of the Cathedral, his Imperial Majeſty was received by the Electors of Mentz and Treves, who performed the Ceremony of the Coronation, aſſiſted by ſeveral Prelates; and after his Imperial Majeſty had been inveſted with the Robe of Charles the Great, and that the Imperial Crown had been placed upon his Head, he returned on Foot to the Romer, the Electoral Ambaſſadors preceeding him, the Electors of Mentz and Treves walking at the Right and Left-hand under his Canopy, Count Pappenheim as Hereditary Marſhal of the Empire carrying the Sword of State before him, and all the Princes, Counts, Barons and Gentleman of the Suite of the Ambaſſadors following according to their ſeveral Ranks. The Queen of Hungary, accompanied by the Dutcheſs Dowager of Brunſwick, and all the Ladies of her Court, ſaw the Coronation in a Seat prepared for her Majeſty in the Church, and afterwards the Proceſſion at a Window in a private Houſe near the Romer upon the Market Place. The Emperor dined in the Great Hall of the Romer, being ſeated under a Canopy of Gold Cloth on a Place erected for that Purpoſe at the upper End of the Hall; the Elector of Treves ſat lower at a Table over-againſt the Emperor; the Elector of Mentz, at another, on his Imperial Majeſty's Right Hand, and all along the Hall Tables were ſerved under their proper Canopies, for the abſent Electors, according to the uſual Cuſtom. After Dinner the Emperor ſhew'd himſelf to the People at a Balcony in his Robes, having the Imperial Crown of Charles the Great upon his Head, and his Majeſty ſaw at the ſame Time the ſeveral Functions performed by the Hereditary Officers of the Empire; and though the Multitudes was very great, yet every thing paſſed in good Order; and after the Emperor was returned in his Coach to his Palace, the Evening concluded with Illuminations, &c. Yeſterday the Emperor and Queen of Hungary dined in publick, and her Majeſty has fixed her Departure on the 16th inſtant, and it is ſuppoſed the Emperor will ſet out at the ſame time for Vienna; but their Majeſty's will take different Routs for the Conveniency of Poſt Horſes.

Francfort, Oct. 6, N. S. Yeſterday we received the Account of the Action between the Allied Army and the Pruſſians upon the 30th paſt. The Deſign was to have ſurpriſed the Enemy, which would have ſucceeded, had not one of the Wings of our Army miſtaken the Road in the Darkneſs of the Night, and a great Fog retarded the Attack; both which Accidents gave the Pruſſians full Time to form. In the Beginning, the Allies were ſo ſucceſsful as to oblige the Enemy ſeveral times to retire, though in Juſtice to them it muſt be ſaid, they ſoon rallied and returned to the Charge, and the Concluſion of the Affair had probably been as favourable, if a conſiderable Body of our Troops, which had penetrated into the Pruſſian Camp, had not been too intent in plundering it, inſtead of attacking the Enemy in the Rear, as they were ordered. The Battle laſted four Hours; but at laſt the Allies were obliged to retire, which they did in good Order, to their old Camp at Konigſhoff. Prince Charles himſelf covered the Retreat with four Regiments. Our Loſs amounts to 2000 killed and wounded, and that of the Enemy is more conſiderable.

Vilvoerden, October 11, N. S. Aeth ſurrendered the Day before Yeſterday upon honourable Conditions, the Garriſon being allowed to march out with all Military Honours, and to be conducted to Bruſſels upon the 13th.

Hague, October 12, N. S. We have Advice here from Paris of the 8th Inſtant, that upon the 6th a Courier arrived at Fontainbleau from Marſhal Maillebois, with an Account, that the Allied Army of France and Spain had forced the Paſſage of the Tanaro, behind which the King of Sardinia's Army was poſted; that the Sardinian Troops had retired under the Walls of Valentia, having abandoned Alexandria, which the Infant Don Philip forthwith cauſed to be inveſted with a Deſign to beſiege it; the King of Sardinia is ſaid to have loſt in this Action between fifteen and eighteen hundred Men, two Standards and eight Pieces of Cannon; and the Loſs on the Part of the French and Spaniards to have been not very conſiderable. M. de Lautrec had been obliged to raiſe the Siege of Exiles, and was marching towards Feneſtrella. We have juſt heard from Helvoetſluys, that the two Mails with the Letters of the 5th and 8th from this Place, which were ſent over on board a Fiſhing Veſſel hired for that Purpoſe, the Packet Boats being all on the other Side, were taken Yeſterday, near the Coaſt of England, by a ſmall French Privateer.

Whitehall, October 8.

By Letters of the 3d from Berwick we are informed, that the Rebels continued in their Camp at Duddingſton on the 2d; that the Day before, about Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, they began to dig a Trench, croſs the Street of Edinburgh, a little below the Reſervoir on the Caſtle Hill; about Three in the Afternoon, the Garriſon of the Caſtle fired on them with Small Arms, killed three of the Rebels and wounded the Officer who commanded the Party; upon which they diſcontinued to work at the Trench. About Four o'Clock, ſome great Guns were fired from the Caſtle, which did little or no Damage to the Town; immediately on the firing from the Caſtle the Pretender's Son left the Abbey and retired to the Camp at Duddingſton.

Whitehall, October 8.

By Letters received this Day from Berwick, of the 5th Inſtant, the main Body of the Rebels were, on the 4th, ſtill at Duddingſton, and thoſe left in Edinburgh, continued where they had taken Poſt in order to cut off all Communication with the Caſtle. There is likewiſe Advices from Glaſgow, that the Town had received a ſecond Letter from the Pretender's Son, demanding the Sum of 15,000 l. Which Letter was accompanied with Threats of Military Execution, if the Demand was not complied with. The Town under this Neceſſity prevail'd upon the Party of the Rebels, who had been ſent to require the above Contribution, to leſſen it to 5500 l. Which Sum they were obliged to pay immediately.
